C.270, 1924.

GREEK REFUGEES.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY THE COUNCIL.

The Council having carefully considered the Report of the High Commissioner on the problem of the refugees in Greece;

Notes with satisfaction the establishment of a Central Co-ordination Committee, representative of fifty relief organisations and public Departments working for the refugees;

Expresses its appreciation of the valuable work performed by those bodies;

Realising, however, that there are still more than 600,000 refugees in Greece requiring relief until definitely settled;

Authorises the High Commissioner to bring the Annex to his report to the attention of interested relief organisations.
